Jonathan Geist '99

Assistant Camp Director

Head Coach for Archbishop Ryan Girls Soccer

Coach Geist had been the girls soccer assistant coach for the past four seasons under previous girls coach and new Archbishop Ryan boys soccer coach Ryan Haney '97. As an assistant, Coach Geist helped the girls soccer program win four consecutive championships from 2012 to 2015, the first girls soccer program in Philadelphia Catholic League history to accomplish this feat. Geist was a two sport athlete at Archbishop Ryan, participating in both soccer and tennis under current athletic director, George Todt. As a player on the boys soccer team, Geist won three Philadelphia Catholic League championships in 1995, 1996 and 1998. Geist continued his soccer career at Wesley College and ultimately graduated from Temple University. Geist earned his National D Soccer Coaching License in 2008 and spent time coaching the girls program at Bishop Eustace High School in South Jersey. Geist is also active with the Parkwood Youth Organization. For his work with both Archbishop Ryan and Parkwood he was named Southeastern Pennsylvania Soccer Coach of the Year in 2015. Geist is married to a fellow 1999 Archbishop Ryan alum and has a four year old son, Ben.
