By submitting the above information, you acknowledge that you have provided accurate and truthful information. If selected, you agree to abide by the standards, policies and by-laws set forth by the Intermountain Lacrosse (IMLAX) and Brighton's lacrosse board. Furthermore, you agree to cooperate with all the coaches, referees and parents in a professional manner. You agree to conduct yourself in a manner that demonstrates leadership, good character and sportsmanship on and off the field. You understand and acknowledge that Brighton Youth

Lacrosse has been delegated the responsibility of administering the youth program by the Board of Brighton Lacrosse and that it independently manages its coaches and reserves the right to select and terminate all coaching personnel at its sole discretion. You further commit not to use profane language, consume or use alcohol, tobacco or drugs prior to or while coaching for Brighton Lacrosse. You will be timely and responsible in your practices and games. You will respect the players, parents, coaches and officials of lacrosse. You understand that it is a privilege to coach in Brighton's youth program and will treat it as such by earnestly striving to provide each player with adequate playing time and an opportunity to improve their skill level by holding organized and meaningful practice sessions. Any violations of the afore-mentioned terms will be considered a breach and grounds for dismissal.
